HONEYMOONERS BRING THE FAMILY

Phuket, Thailand, The Vijitt Resort is tapping into a new but growing market – honeymooners traveling with children. An ideal honeymoon resort The Vijitt Resort caters for a wide selection of tastes with more than 6 different categories of villas and has 16 villas that cater for families.

But it is the two storey Prime Pool Villas and the resorts 3 two bedroomed villas that are the perfect solution for the new and rapidly growing market of couples going on honeymoon who have children already, often from a previous marriage. Of course they want to include the children in their new relationship, so what better way to start than to bring them on honeymoon to a resort where the whole family can relax and at the same time the couple can enjoy their honeymoon. The Prime Pool Villas, spread over two floors offers an upstairs living room leading onto a pool and large terrace while downstairs is a large bedroom with King size bed and plenty of space for up to two extra beds, ideal for couples with younger children. Alternatively for more privacy the couple can select one of the resorts 2 bedroomed pool villas, all set on one level with a master bedroom with adjoining living area and a separate 2nd bedroom,

"We want everyone to relax and enjoy themselves" stated James Sullivan-Tailyour, the resorts General Manager, "so as well as Champagne and flowers for the honeymooners we have game packs for the children, special amenity packs and specially designed Kids mini bars."

The resort's other facilities compliment this with two restaurants, kids menus, a great kids club and a spa. Who says Honeymooners and children don't Mix?

Prices for Pool Villas start at US$250 per villa per night including breakfast and the beachfront Vijitt Pool Villas start at US$750 per villa per night. During May to September special offers on Pool Villas are available as low as US$125 per villa per night.
